Senior Associate | +7 (999) 844-67-25 | dmitry.ryzhov@navicus.law

He has over six years' experience specialising in commercial and insurance litigation, acting for clients in complex proceedings, including maritime and cross-border disputes.

In addition, Dmitry advises insurance companies and policyholders on complex issues arising from the settlement of insurance claims. For instance, he represented a prominent Russian insurer in settling general average losses amounting to $6 million.

Key Practice Areas

- Commercial Disputes

Acting for Russian and international clients across various matters, including disputes arising from contracts for the carriage of goods, supply, construction, and other agreements.

- Insurance Disputes

Representing policyholders and insurers in disputes arising from a broad range of insurance policies, including cargo insurance, liability insurance, business risk insurance, and others.

- Bankruptcy Disputes

Advising and managing procedures on behalf of debtors, creditors, and bankruptcy administrators, including handling a wide range of isolated disputes such as: challenging transactions, pursuing and defending against claims for subsidiary liability, challenging the actions of the bankruptcy administrator, and filing claims for inclusion in the creditors' register.
